Sub-project

3-1-1 To Improve the Student Support system

Results and Highlights:

The sub-project of the plan can be divided into two main axes: academic and life counseling. In the academic aspect, "Individualized Support Program" are held at the beginning of the semester. There are a total of 128 meetings, allowing students to propose to the school at the beginning of each semester. And the problems encountered in life, through the coordination of the meeting, we can help solve the problems that students will face; in addition, when students have difficulties in schoolwork, students can also put forward "multiple examination services", "academic performance guidance" and "course guidance". Through this service, students will be able to take classes more smoothly. There are a total of 18 people applying for 31 subjects in the diversified examination service, a total of 60 people applying for academic performance counseling, and a total of 231 classes. A total of 27 people asked for schoolwork guidance. The life counseling includes four themed courses of "interpersonal and social adjustment", "growth group", "career exploration" and "transfer service", so that students can learn good life skills in these courses. You can adapt well in the future. In the interpersonal and social adaptation course, 299 people participated in 7 courses. Some courses will also lead students to visits outside the school to practice interpersonal interaction with people. Among the growth groups, 39 people participated in 3 courses, such as gender equality education groups, to have a greater understanding of the concept of gender relations. In the career exploration course, 116 people participated in 6 courses. The career exploration master allows students to have a preliminary understanding of the career they want to pursue in the future. In the transfer course, 23 people participated in 2 courses. In the transfer service part, for graduates, students who are about to graduate can get a clearer career direction and goal through the meeting and consultation of the attendants, and reduce the fear of the future.
